Keynote Presentation

Amp Up Your Impact- See it, Say it, Share it!

ASPHN Professional Messaging Campaign Launch:
Lourdes Pogue
Gail Fotrell-Jones

ASPHN partnered with Lourdes Pogue of CS Communications to create a messaging campaign that highlights the roles and value of public health nutritionists.

In the See It, Say It, Share It! campaign launch workshop, Lourdes and Gail helped attendees discover ways to use these messages on posters, social media and in conversation to describe the impact that public health nutrition is making where they are.

Annual Awards

Celebrate!: 2017 ASPHN Annual Awardees

Becky Adams
EXCELLENCE IN ASSOCIATION WORK

Becky’s Board activities during the past year have made a major difference in moving forward ASPHN’s goals and objectives.
"When I describe state nutrition programs and leaders to graduate students, Becky is a person who is often used as an example of a great leader."
- Jamie Stang

Elizabeth Pivonka
EXCELLENCE IN ADVOCACY

Elizabeth has made a significant contribution to the field of public health nutrition through advocacy, policy change, and/or collaborative work with decision makers.

"A major accomplishment is Elizabeth's leadership on the National Action Plan (NAP) to Promote Health Through Increased Fruit & Veg, Consumption in 2005 and its evaluation report cards in 2010 and 2015."
- Mary Ann Ellsworth

Angie Tagtow
EXCELLENCE IN PRACTICE

Angie is recognized for outstanding contribution to the field of public health nutrition and efforts that have assisted in meeting ASPHN's mission.

"During her time as Executive Director for the CNPP at the USDA, a major activity that occurred was the development and promotion of the Dietary Guidelines for Americans 2015-2020... [which] are followed by all public health nutritionists across the nation."
- Jill Lange & MCH Nutrition Council Steering Committee

Ashley Davis

Ashley is recognized for outstanding contribution to the field of public health nutrition and her activities and efforts that have assisted in meeting ASPHN's mission.

"Over the past 3 years, Ashley Davis has helped to bring the Creating Healthy Communities (CHC) program at the Ohio Department of Health (ODH) to a new level. What was once primarily a sub grant program, has now become a robust statewide program..."
- Sara Ginnetti

Bridget Igoe
FRUIT AND VEGETABLE COUNCIL LEADERSHIP

Bridget is honored for outstanding contribution to public health nutrition specifically related to increasing fruit and vegetable consumption. This award also recognizes her leadership role with federal partners and the National Council of Fruit & Vegetable Nutrition Coordinators.

"Bridget's work [on Washington's USDA Food Insecurity Nutrition Incentive (FINI) project] serves as an outstanding example of using strong policies, programs, and environments to increase access to and support consumption of fruits and vegetables."
- Diane Peck & Fruit & Vegetable Nutrition Coordinators Leadership Team

Peggy Trouba
MCH COUNCIL LEADERSHIP
Peggy is honored as a leader on the MCH Council for outstanding contribution to expanding ASPHN’s purpose of improving the health and wellbeing of the MCH population.

"Under Peggy’s leadership, we expanded our membership significantly, thanks largely to her efforts to reach out to potential new members…. Her enthusiasm for MCH nutrition is infectious."
- Jamie Stang
