

The Culture Game

(Dietra Hawkins, PsyD, revised 2019)

In order to win this game, you must get a BINGO (all boxes in a row have to be initialed by a different person). To get a box initialed, you must find a person in the room who knows the answer to the question. When you have found such a person, have them initial the box in which the question is contained. When you have a BINGO, let us know and the first person to do so will be declared the winner. Extra credit for more than one row!
