ASPHN and CDC Updates

Now Available! CDC's WIC Customized Checklists!

I am very excited to share that the CDC Milestone Checklists for WIC are now updated to reflect the revised milestones in English!

The CDC Milestone Checklists for WIC have been updated to include revised milestones, WIC-relevant tips and next steps for parents, and an updated design. Please ONLY customize the CDC Milestone Checklist for WIC titled “customizable” and never customize anything including the CDC logo. Attached you will find both the ready-to-print checklists with the CDC logo and the customizable checklists in English.

The Spanish versions are being worked on and will be disseminated as soon as they are ready. These are not yet available on CDC's LTSAE webpage. The English and Spanish versions will both be added to the webpage once the Spanish version is ready. Thanks and let me know if you have any questions!

Update on Environmental Graphics! Feedback Needed!

CDC has reviewed the current environmental graphics (wall/floor graphics) for WIC and there are quite a few changes that need to be updated to reflect the revised milestones. CDC will begin working on this. They need some feedback from all of you.

CDC would like to know the following information:

- Do you have a preference on whether you would like CDC to update everything including the design and graphics or if you would rather they just update the wording? (Just updating the wording will be significantly faster, but a complete redesign is an option)
- Is there anything about the current design that you would like updated? (i.e. colors, size, shape, etc.)?

The current environmental graphics can be found here:
Upcoming Training - Quick Feedback Needed!

One of our upcoming training will be a training about social media and how to leverage social media to promote developmental monitoring and LTSAE resources Before this training, we need a little bit of information from you to ensure that you receive the most relevant information. If you could please fill out the Social Media Training Survey. It should only take 1-2 minutes. Thanks!
